Southtown Teachers' Center

Online Course: 15 Hours
Instructor:Addie Sausner
THURSDAYS
Feb. 25, Mar. 4, 11, 18, 25 2021
Synchronous/Asynchronous mix
Google Meet/Google Classroom

Audience:
Teachers, Social Workers, Counselors.

This is not a Teacher Aide Course

NYS CTLE Hours earned: 15
Areas of study:
Effective Instructional Strategies
Technology
Professional Best Practices
Tenure Eligible in Hamburg

Course Fee $75
Payable by :
Check payable to STC
Credit card-select invoice option at registration.
Hamburg Employees may use a signed Prior Approval in place of a deposit.

Registration:
Online Registration Link

Registrations will be taken until February 16th. This is also the last day for withdrawals to receive a refund or not be billed for the course. Limited to 15 spots!

Southtown Teachers' Center
4460 Bay View Rd Hamburg, NY 14075
716-649-6775
vanessa@SouthtownTeachersCenter.org
Web: SouthtownTeachersCenter.org
"Service to all who educate."

Effective & Engaging Technology-Based Strategies

Note: Participants should have a basic working knowledge of the Google Suite for Education. Knowledge of basic use of Docs, Slides, etc.. This course will take those basic skills up to the next level.

Description: Have you seen amazing technology-based lessons online and wondered how they did that? Are you looking for fun and engaging strategies for your learning environment? If so, this course is for you!

During our sessions you will create a technology-based toolkit full of activities the can be applied to cooperative learning, inquiry-based instruction, project-based learning, behavior management, differentiated instruction and more.
*This course addresses the ISTE Standards for both teachers and students.

Schedule: 5 Weeks of 1 Hour Synchronous Sessions and 4 weeks of 2.5 hours Asynchronous learning and projects; creating a portfolio of work to be shared.

Week 1 Thursday Feb 25 4:00-5:00 Synchronous
Intro to course -Overview of 21st Century skills for educators and students - Introduce ISTE Standards. "Flipping Out Flipgrid!" Group Instruction on the use of Flipgrid in an educational setting to support student and parent communication.

Week 2 Thursday March 4 4:00-5:00 Synchronous
"Bitmoji Classroom" Learn to create a Bitmoji Classroom to promote student engagement across content areas, to foster visible learning, and its application towards differentiated instruction.

Week 3 Thursday March 11 4:00-5:00 Synchronous
"Jamming Out with Google Jamboard" Learn about this great Google app in your G-Suite. Learn to use Jamboard and other ways to promote collaborative and project-based learning experiences.

Week 4 Thursday March 18 4:00-5:00 Synchronous
"Next Level Google Slides" Enhance your teaching and presentation skills with slides that include student choice boards, assessments, interactive learning and behavior management.

Week 5 Thursday March 25 4:00-5:00 Synchronous
"Technology and its Uses for Behavior Management and Positive Learning Environment"
Post-Course Survey
Presentation of Work Portfolios